

San Rafael Planning Academy

Ready to be a citizen planner in San Rafael?

Know what it takes to evaluate and improve a proposed development in your neighborhood?

What is San Rafael doing to be an even better city to live and work in?

Thursday, February 12 - March 26
6:30 to 9:00 p.m.

To register for the Planning Academy, visit <http://eplay.livelifelocally.com> or call 485-3333. Register early as enrollment will be limited.

There is a fee ($33 San Rafael residents, $38 nonresidents) to cover class materials.

The Planning Academy is about understanding design, traffic and housing, appreciating the efforts necessary to make San Rafael a livable city, and exploring the tradeoffs in community planning. Over the course of six classes you will learn the history of planning in San Rafael, how State laws affect City planning, how to recognize the elements of quality project design, what the City is doing to address climate change, and how to advocate for changes for the better.

The Planning Academy is offered by the San Rafael Community Development Department.
